

AGREEMENT OF COOPERATION between

HILLSIDE EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS, BANGALORE, INDIA

and

PETRO MOHYLA BLACK SEA NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

Pursuant to the rules of mutual respect, independence and taking into account the mutual benefits, Hillside Educational Institutions, Bangalore represented by the director Vincent MATHEW and Petro Mohyla Black Sea National University represented by the rector Leonid KLYMENKO, hereinafter referred to as "parties" have decided to enter into an agreement on cooperation.

1. Purpose

This Agreement of Cooperation serves as a written understanding of agreed upon principles between Petro Mohyla Black Sea National University and Hillside Educational Institutions, Bangalore concerning a set of general academic objectives.

2. Objectives, Scope and Major Activities

Both institutions agree to encourage the development of the following types of activities:

- Exchange of students;
- Exchange of faculty and research scholars;
- Organize joint conferences and other scientific meetings on subjects of mutual interest;
- Joint events in the multimedia field;
- Explore the possibilities for developing joint research programs and collaborations;
- Academic staff traineeship and students' practice;
- Other exchange and cooperation programs to which both parties agree.

3. Responsibilities of the Parties

Two parties recognize that the implementation of any agreed upon activity will depend upon the interests and expertise of the individuals involved and the availability of financial and other resources. Accordingly, the implementation of any exchange and cooperative program based on this Agreement shall be separately negotiated and determined between two institutions. It is further expected that both parties will be compliant with all applicable provincial and federal laws and regulations and University policy.

4. Duration and Option to Amend, Extend or Terminate

This Agreement will become effective when signed by both parties. The agreement will remain in effect for five years from the signature date, below, and may be renewed or amended by mutual agreement of the parties. The parties agree to periodically review the activities undertaken and the progress made to consult concerning amendments, renewal or termination of this Agreement. Either party may terminate this Agreement at any time by providing written thirty day notice of such termination to the other party.

5. Marketing

Neither party will use the name of the other, either expressly or by implication, in any publicity, solicitation or advertisement without the express written approval of the other party to this Agreement. Neither party can represent itself as the other or use their partner's logo, or promote any mutual programs in any language without prior written approval of the copy, collateral materials and web presence or web linkages by partner officials. Failure to do so may serve as a breach of this agreement.

The two parties recognize that the implementation of any agreed upon activity will depend upon the interests and expertise of the individuals involved and the availability of financial resources, space and other resources. Both parties will be compliant with all applicable provincial and federal laws and regulations and University policies.

6. English Version

If this Agreement is translated in any language other than the English language, and in the event of a conflict between the English language version and the translated version, the English language version shall prevail in all respects.

7. Authorized Signatures

By the signatures of their respective and duly authorized officials below, both parties acknowledge having read and understood the agreement and agree to be bound by its terms and conditions.
